DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. The request for a continued prosecution application (CPA) under 37 CFR 1.53(d) filed on August 6, 2002 is acknowledged. 37 CFR 1.53(d)(1) was amended to provide that the prior application of a CPA must be: (1) a utility or plant application that was filed under 35 U.S.C. 111(a) before May 29, 2000, (2) a design application, or (3) the national stage of an international application that was filed under 35 U.S.C. 363 before May 29, 2000. See Changes to Application Examination and Provisional Application Practice, interim rule, 65 Fed. Reg. 14865, 14872 (Mar. 20, 2000), 1233 Off. Gaz. Pat. Office 47, 52 (Apr. 11, 2000). Since a CPA of this application is not permitted under 37 CFR 1.53(d)(1), the improper request for a CPA is being treated as a request for continued examination of this application under 37 CFR 1.114. See id. at 14866, 1233 Off. Gaz. Pat. Office at 48.

2. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on August 6, 2002 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 2 and 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US patent No. 4,685,198 to Kawakita et al.

Regarding claims 1, 2 and 5, Kawakita et al. teaches a semiconductor isolation structure comprising (Fig. 2j):

a substrate;

a first and second device formed within the surface of the substrate;

an isolation region between the first and second devices, the isolation region comprising:

a deep region, comprising an oxide (42) with a cross sectional area;

a single shallow region which extends to the surface of the substrate, the shallow region comprising:

a protective outer wall (30) adjacent the substrate;

an inner sealing wall (32) exclusively within the shallow region and adjacent the protective outer wall;

wherein the shallow region has a shallow cross-sectional area; and the deep region has a cross-sectional area that is greater than that of the shallow region.

Regarding claims 4 and 6, Kawakita teaches an isolation structure, wherein the protective outer wall comprises an oxide and the inner sealing wall comprises a nitride.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed August 6, 2002 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

6. In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., non-continuous deep regions of oxide) are not recited in the rejected claim(s).

Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Additionally, the oxide layer (42) has regions that each underlie a single shallow region.

7. The applicant argues that Kawakita et al. does not teach a single shallow region per isolation structure. The isolation structure that is formed between a first device and second device (See Figure 2j) only has one shallow region between the two transistors. There is nothing in the claims to preclude a continuous deep oxide layer from being connected to several shallow regions.
